

UCL Health of the Public

Humanitarian Scenario Event

Health on the move: What needs to be done to make sure no one is left behind?' 09:30-19:00 | 10.06.22

09:30      Registration

09:45      Welcome and Introduction

- Prof Graham Hart (Co-Director, UCL Health of the Public)
- Xand Van Tulleken (Doctor, writer, and TV presenter)

10:00      Expert Input Round 1 – Setting the Scene

- Yemen 101 (Ella Al-Shamahi, academic and broadcaster)
- Current health of the public in Yemen (Elias Pavlopoulos, UK-Med)
- Is it safe to go? (Lisa Reilly, GISF)
- How to do a rapid qualitative needs assessment (Cecilia Vindrola, UCL)

11:00      Scenario Round 1: Who would you choose?

- Introduction to scenario (Xand Van Tulleken)
- Group work begins.*

12:30      Expert input, Round 2: Food, water and shelter

- Food and nutrition (Andy Seal, UCL)
- Water security in Yemen (Lisa Guppy, UCL)
- Shelter needs (Victoria Maynard, UCL)

13:00      Lunch (provided)

14:00      Scenario Round 2: What would you deliver?

- Introduction to scenario (Xand Van Tulleken)
- Group work begins.*

14:45      Scenario Round 3: How would you do it?

- Introduction to scenario (Xand Van Tulleken)
- Local solutions (Andrew Lamb, Global Field Ready)
- Humanitarian innovation (Ben Oldfrey, UCL)

- Am I safe now? (Lisa Reilly, IGSF)

Group work begins

15:45

Break with refreshments

16.00

Personal reflections on working in Yemen

- Elias Pavlopoulos (UK-Med)

16:15

Careers in the sector

- Chair: Xand Van Tulleken
- Phil Duloy (FCDO) plus panel Q&A with other presenters.

16:45

De-brief

17:00

Drinks reception