

Mental Health Research UK – UK PhD Scholarships 2022

Mental Health Research UK have announced the next round of PhD Scholarships: <http://www.mentalhealthresearchuk.org.uk/phd-scholarship-competition>

Scholarships are available in the following areas:

- 1) John Grace QC Scholarship - New approaches to treating schizophrenia.
- 2) Impact of COVID 19 on understanding mental health, race and intersectionality.

The funder have added that they are 'particularly interested in supporting research in these areas that uses, or develops, innovative approaches to data collection or analysis.'

UCL may only submit one application for each Scholarship, and therefore we will be running an internal review process for this scheme. Please note only eligible principal \(PI\) and subsidiary \(Co-I\) supervisors can apply. The internal deadline for applications is 4pm, Wednesday 31st March. The internal review meeting will take place 3 weeks after the internal deadline. The funder deadline is 14th May.

Any potential applicants should complete an EOI Form (see below) which comprises a 2 page description of the research project and training, and 1 page CV for the PI and for each Co-I. These should be sent to the SLMS Research Coordination Office by email (slms.facilitators@ucl.ac.uk) by 4pm, Wednesday 31st March. You can download the internal EOI form below:
