

UCL Department of Hebrew and Jewish Studies Honorary Research Associate policy

Researchers in the following categories are eligible to apply for Honorary Research Status in the Department:

1. Visiting researchers from another academic institution based in the Department (for the duration of their stay in the Department)
2. Postdoctoral researchers after the end of their term of employment in the Department (for a two-year period after leaving UCL)
3. Recent PhD graduates of the Department (for a two-year period after leaving UCL)
4. Researchers working on Departmental research projects or other Departmental research-related work (for an initial three-year period)
5. Emeritus core academic Departmental staff

Researchers in one of the above categories wishing to apply for Honorary Research Status in the Department should send their request to jewish.studies@ucl.ac.uk.

All applications must be seconded by a Departmental staff member.

All applications will be considered by the Departmental Research Committee and applicants will be notified of the outcome.