

Hester Rothschild Scholarship

Applications are invited to the Hester Rothschild Scholarship for 2023.

This £800 scholarship was established in 1908 by Madame Halfon in commemoration of her mother, Hester Rothschild.

Applicants are invited to submit a three-page proposal (1.5 spaced, 11 point) for their planned research in the field of Hebrew and Jewish Studies, intended to lead to a MA dissertation for submission in the academic year 2024-25 (full-time students) or 2025-26 (part-time students), or to a MPhil/PhD project to start in the academic year 2024-25. Applicants may add one page for references and a bibliography, and a one-page CV.

Applicants need to have applied to the MA Jewish Studies or a MPhil/PhD degree at the UCL Department of Hebrew and Jewish Studies by the deadline of the scholarship (31 July annually).

The Award Committee of the UCL Department for Hebrew and Jewish Studies will assess submissions for their scholarly potential alone. The Scholarship will be awarded by the UCL Faculty of Arts and Humanities.

To apply, send the proposal and supporting documentation collated in one electronic file to [jewish.studies@ucl.ac.uk](mailto: jewish.studies@ucl.ac.uk) by 31 July.