

AFRAB Project Meetings
Monrovia, Bella Casa Hotel, room next to restaurant hall
Sunday 16 October 2022, 10am-6pm

16 October 2022, morning session: progress to date and methodological review

Participants: Joseph Ineke (JI), Monsuru Muritala (MM), Michael Odijie (MO), Benedetta Rossi (BR), Emmanuel Saboro (ES)

- 1) 10am-11.15pm: JI, MM, MO, and ES present their previous research in the framework of the AFRAB Project. Where have they been conducting research, what sources have they been focusing on, what specific questions have they been investigating, and what are their preliminary findings. Ca 10-15 mins each. BR asks questions and gives feedback.

Coffee break (15 min)

- 2) 11.30am-1pm, BR discusses AFRAB methodology, approaches, and progress to date based on the printed AFRAB methods pack that will be distributed at the meeting. Group discussion about AFRAB questions and methods in the context of Ghanaian and Nigerian research.

16 October 2022, afternoon session: Moving forward

Participants: Olutayo Adesina (OA), Joseph Ineke (JI), Monsuru Muritala (MM), Michael Odijie (MO), Benedetta Rossi (BR), Emmanuel Saboro (ES)

- 3) 2pm-4pm: OA, JI, MM, and ES introduce research questions and activities that Nigerian and Ghanaian teams plan to develop in the next months. Obstacles and possible solutions. MO and BR listen, ask questions, provide feedback.

Coffee break (15 min)

- 4) 4.15pm-6pm: AFRAB Panel in Afterlives Conference; presentations, publication plans, ways forward in research on topics of presentation, other publication plans.

This workshop has received funding from the European Research Council (ERC) under the European Union's Horizon2020 research and innovation programme (grant agreement No. 885418).