WHAT DID WOMEN DO IN THE MINERS' STRIKE OF 1984-5?

For a year, a team of researchers has been interviewing women from South Yorkshire and other coalfields about their experiences in the miners' strike.

At this event:

- You'll find out what we've discovered ...
- You'll hear from South Yorkshire women in their own words about the strike ...
- And we'll discuss your stories of the strike, and how you think it should be remembered in South Yorkshire.

Please bring along any photographs or objects - like badges or miners' lamps - from the time.

We would love to see them!
