

Part II: Discoveries across Distance

Related Images

Image 1: Front page of Lat Pau Chinese newspaper, published in Singapore from 1880

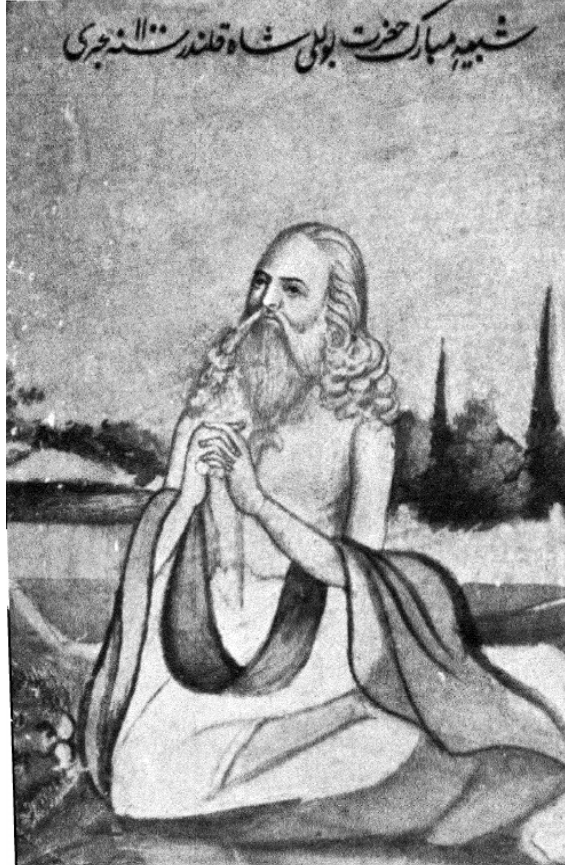

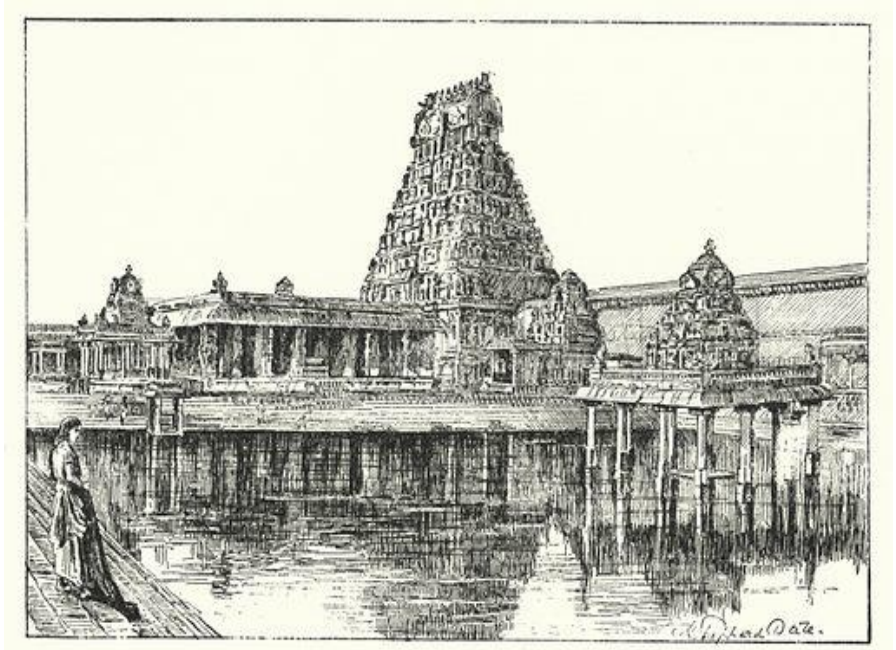

Image 2: Illustration of a Sufi saint, the life stories of which became a staple of Bombay's thriving 19th century Muslim book trade

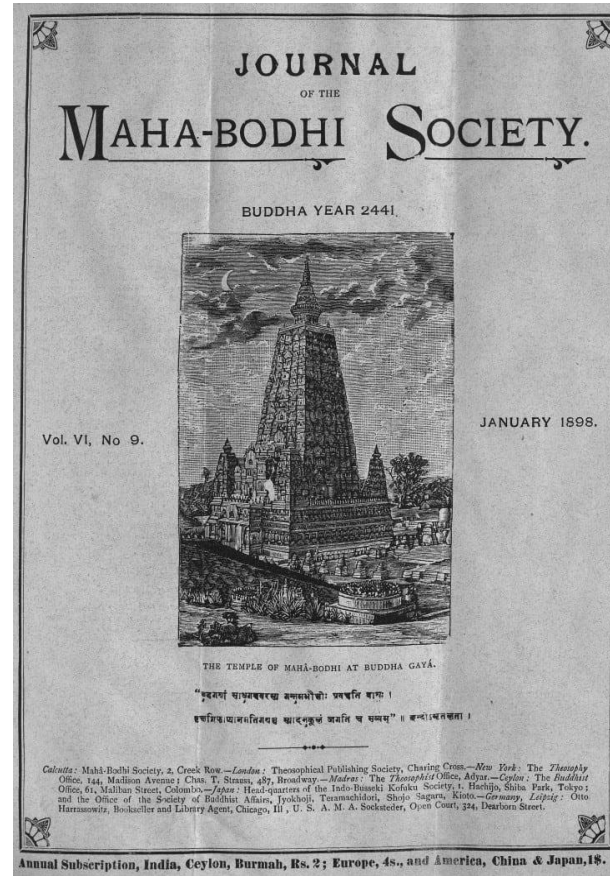

TEMPLE TANK, TIRUPATI.

Image 3: 19th century illustration of the Venkateswara Temple in India, which was celebrated in Tamil devotional pamphlets published in Ceylon.

Image 4: The Ceylonese Buddhist reformer Anagarika Dharmapala, who edited the Maha Bodhi and United Buddhist World (established 1892)

Images 5 and 6: Advertisement and cover page for Dharmapala's Maha Bodhi and United Buddhist World journal

Image 7: Contributors to the Stri Dharma magazine of the Women's India Association included the activists (clockwise from left) Dr Muthulakshmi Reddy, Margaret Cousins, Kamaldevi Chattopadhyay and Annie Besant