Mid-term Module Questionnaire

Module name or code: ______________________________ Date: __________

The sole aim of this anonymous questionnaire is to give the module tutor(s) some timely feedback on your learning experience so far. It is not an official departmental or College feedback mechanism and the results will be shared only between the module tutor(s) and participants.

Please circle any answers that apply to you, and add further comments as you like.

1. The workload so far for this module has been: too heavy / about right / too light
   Any further comments or suggestions about the workload: _______________________
   _______________________________________________________________________
   _______________________________________________________________________
   (continue comments overleaf if necessary)

2. The pace of the lectures so far has been: too fast / about right / too slow
   Any further comments or suggestions about the lectures: _______________________
   _______________________________________________________________________
   _______________________________________________________________________
   (continue comments overleaf if necessary)

3. (Two parts to question.) The associated reading, exercises and/or private study tasks are
   (A): too difficult or demanding / at about the right level / not difficult or demanding enough and (B): useful / not useful
   Any further comments or suggestions about associated reading, exercises, etc: ______
   _______________________________________________________________________
   _______________________________________________________________________
   (continue comments overleaf if necessary)

4. The teaching support (in labs, tutorials, seminars, etc.) is: adequate / inadequate
   Any further comments or suggestions about teaching support: _______________________
   _______________________________________________________________________
   _______________________________________________________________________
   (continue comments overleaf if necessary)

5. So far I have missed approximately the following number of taught sessions: ______

6. Excluding the taught sessions, so far I have studied for this module for approximately the following number of hours per week: ______

7. On the whole, I am achieving my own learning objectives for this module: yes / no

Please include any other comments, requests or suggestions for improvement about any aspect of this module overleaf.