

UCL African Studies seminar series

Autumn term 2018

Seminars will take place every other Thursday this term, 12.15-1.45 pm in seminar room 22, first floor of the Wilkins building, South Wing.

www.ucl.ac.uk/african-studies/events/lunchtime-seminar-series

- 11th October Hannah Höchner (University of East Anglia)
Senegalese migrants' children, homeland 'returns', and Islamic education in a transnational setting
- 25th October Ini Dele-Adedeji (SOAS)
Known unknowns and unknown unknowns: perception, reality, and disputation in the field of study on Boko Haram
- 22nd November Marie Rodet (SOAS) – Film screening and Q&A with filmmaker
The Diambourou: Slavery and Emancipation in Kayes - Mali (Marie Rodet & Fanny Challier, 2014, 23 min)
- 6th December Tatiana Thieme (UCL Geography)
'When the day hustle goes down, the night hustle goes up':
Temporalities of the hustle economy in Mathare, Nairobi

This seminar series is convened by the African Studies Research Centre/IAS:
Dr. Hélène Neveu Kringelbach (h.neveu@ucl.ac.uk)
Prof. Megan Vaughan (megan.vaughan@ucl.ac.uk)
Dr. Keren Weitzberg (k.weitzberg@ucl.ac.uk)

ALL WELCOME

