

IAS Visiting Research Fellows (Non-Stipendiary) Application Form

Name
Institutional affiliation
Current position
Duration of stay at IAS
Preferred start* and end dates
Sources of funding during your time at the IAS
Title of project
Names and contact details of two referees, one of whom should preferably be from UCL	1.
	2.
Research proposal: Please outline the work that you intend to do at the IAS, say how it fits in with your larger research project and indicate its potential interdisciplinary reach (750-1,000 words)
Why would you like to be at the IAS/UCL? (150-250 words) If there are particular individuals or research centres that you hope to work with, please specify here.

* Please allow at least three months between the application deadline and the beginning of the Fellowship.

How does your work fit with IAS themes/areas? (150-250 words)
Please suggest a topic and possible respondents for a Talking Points seminar (100 words) Talking Points is a discussion forum and lecture platform that aims to bring IAS residents and Visiting Research Fellows into conversation with researchers across UCL. The format is usually a lecture with nominated respondents from various UCL departments, with the emphasis on interdisciplinary exchange so discussants and interlocutors are drawn from a range of disciplines and fields.
Will you be collecting data during your visit? Yes/No (please delete as appropriate) If yes, has ethical approval been granted? Yes/No (please delete as appropriate) If yes, from whom?
Please send a sample article or book chapter, already published, in PDF format.	<input type="checkbox"/> Please tick

What the IAS offers you:

- Desk space
- Membership of the IAS community and Common Ground
- Access to UCL resources, including seminars, events and the library
- Full participation in IAS events
- Opportunities to meet colleagues from all areas of a large multi-disciplinary university

What the IAS expects from you:

- Participation in IAS-generated research-based activities
- Involvement in the IAS intellectual community, including working with PhD students
- In-person attendance at weekly IAS Residential Seminars (N.B. not remotely)
- Delivery of one Talking Points Seminar
- Presentation of your research (as appropriate) in IAS forums
- Contributions to other IAS events/platforms as invited
- Generation of ideas and events for scheduling at IAS
- Acknowledgement of the IAS in any publications resulting from research done during the period of the appointment

Please e-mail this form to Catherine Stokes at c.stokes@ucl.ac.uk.