Book Launch

6th November 2017,

UCL Institute of Education, 20 Bedford Way, WC1H 0AL, room 822

'Pathways to Adulthood: Educational opportunities, academic motivation and attainment in times of social change' edited by Ingrid Schoon and Rainer Silbereisen, and published by UCL IOE Press.

Programme

14.00 - 14.15 Welcome from the PIs of Pathways Fellowship Program (Ingrid Schoon, Barbara Schneider, Katriina Salmela-Aro and Rainer Silbereisen)

14.15 – 14.30 Experiences of a Pathway Fellow (Flor Sortheix, University of Helsinki)

14.30 – 14.45 Social Inequalities in educational opportunities (Barbara Schneider, University of Michigan State)

14.45 – 15.00 The socio-economic gradient in educational attainment and labour market outcomes: A cross-national comparison (Jake Anders and John Jerrim, University College London, Institute of Education)

15.00 – 15.15 Social inequality in educational transitions under different types of secondary school curricular differentiation (Katyn Chmielewski, University of Toronto)

15.15 – 15.30 Tea

15.30 – 15.45 Motivation in context (Katriina Salmela-Aro, University of Helsinki)

15.45 – 16.00 Advances in the research on situation-specific and contextual aspects of student engagement (Julia Moeller, Yale University)
16.00 – 16.15 Dealing with uncertainties of social change (Rainer Silbereisen, University of Jena)

16.15 – 16.30 Social change – uncertainty – religiosity: Psychological perspectives on the role of religiosity in changing societies (Clemens Lechner, GESIS Leibniz Institute for the Social Sciences, Mannheim)

16.30 - 16.45 The development of entrepreneurship: A biopsychosocial lifespan model (Martin Obschonka, Queensland University of Technology, Business School)

17.00 Reception