

UCL Queen Square Movement Disorders Centre Symposium

Monday, 10th June 2024

33 Queen Square, London, UK, WC1N 3BG

Hear from international experts on recent discoveries and promising pathways to understand, monitor and treat movement disorders.

Registration and more information:

<http://bit.ly/3O9gpRs>

We are delighted to welcome plenary speaker Jose Obeso, Professor of Neurology, CEU San Pablo University Madrid

'From neuronal vulnerability to therapy in Parkinson's disease – Current possibilities.'

Additional featured speakers include:

Prof. George Tofaris, University of Oxford

Dr. Cynthia Sandor, Cardiff University

Dr. Esther Sammler, Dundee University

Prof. Frances Platt, University of Oxford

Prof. Manju Kurian, UCL Great Ormond Street Institute of Child Health

Dr. Caroline Williams-Gray, University of Cambridge

Prof. Nick Wood, University College London

Prof. Kailash Bhatia, University College London

If you have any queries, please contact the Movement Disorders Centre: movementdisorders@ucl.ac.uk

QUEEN SQUARE INSTITUTE OF NEUROLOGY

UCL