

Friday 21 June – Encephalitis Society in partnership with UCL and the National Hospital for Neurology and Neurosurgery Meet the Scientist event Provisional Agenda

13:30 Registration and welcome, Gilliatt Lecture Theatre, Queen Square House, Institute of Neurology, Queen Square, London WC1N 3BG

14:00 Introduction from Michael Zandi, UCL and National Hospital

14:05 Paul Wicks, Blind Luck Photography – a mechanical eye

14:20 Marios Kaliakotsas – lessons from Great Ormond Street

Autoimmune Encephalitis – Chair Michael Zandi, UCL

14:25 Ester Coutinho, KCL – update on autoimmune encephalitis

14:35 Thomas Miller, UCL – how does encephalitis affect memory and the perception of time?

14:45 Graham Blackman, KCL – psychiatry or neurology in encephalitis why the split?

14:55 research study highlight: Michael Eyre, KCL.

14:50 break and Q&A

Infections and lessons from immunology and cancer research

15:00 Chair Prof Judy Breuer, UCL

Dr Julianne Brown – how to find the causes of viral encephalitis

Dr Sofia Morfopolou – mathematical analysis of viral messages

Dr Tehmina Bharucha – Japanese encephalitis

15:20 Prof Emma Morris – what can the advances in cancer immunology offer to patients with encephalitis?

15:40 Chair Paul Wicks: questions to the panel

16:00- 1645 tea and a chance to talk to the researchers and for them to talk to you:

Tea at the Queen Square medical library, hosted by Sarah Lawson, exhibition on encephalitis lethargica including Queen Square archives