

Course Units 2017-2018

Oral Examination Topics

Spanish Syllabus A

Topic 1

Imagine you are on a Spanish train. You share the compartment with two people who are both Spanish and who do not speak English.

You want to practise your Spanish, so you start a conversation with them.

Ask them for permission to sit with them. Introduce yourself, tell them about yourself, and show an interest in them.

Course Units 2017-2018

Oral Examination Topics

Spanish Syllabus A

Topic 2

Imagine you are queuing at the till in a supermarket in Madrid. The Spanish people standing in front of you in the queue have bought the last item that you were looking for.

Introduce yourself and politely ask them whether they would give it to you. Explain why you need it. When they agree, show an interest in them and tell them about yourself too.

Course Units 2017-2018

Oral Examination Topics

Spanish Syllabus A

Topic 3

Imagine you are hitch-hiking in Spain. A car pulls over and there are two professional people inside.

After the introductions you talk about yourself and your destination; show an interest in them too.

Course Units 2017-2018

Oral Examination Topics

Spanish Syllabus A

Topic 4

Imagine you are in a pub in London. Two people in the pub, who have just arrived in London, ask if you speak Spanish.

You want to practise your Spanish so you tell them about your interest in Spanish and how you've learnt it. You also want to be helpful to these tourists, so tell them about things to do in London and London life in general.