About the Denys Holland Scholarship Fund and making a donation

Professor Denys Holland, in whose memory the Denys Holland Fund was created via donations from his students, was a sociable, compassionate man. A Professor of Law and Dean of Students, one of his principal concerns was the welfare and fulfilment of students under his care. His admissions policy for the Faculty of Laws was aimed at a broad range of students who would enter fully into college life.

The Denys Holland Scholarship aims to support undergraduate students from any country who, without the support of the scholarship, would be unable to secure the funding required to study at UCL and who can demonstrate their intention to make full use of the activities offered by UCL and the Student Union.

This scholarship has changed lives. Recent recipients have said: “... the scholarship was life changing. It was the kindest act of generosity, confidence in my ability and an appreciation of my contribution; which were not available to me at either my school or at home. At UCL, I arrived feeling valued and equal.” And another said: “Denys Holland Scholarship truly changed my life and I would love to be able to help other people to have that same opportunity.”

To make a donation to the Scholarship fund, you should make a separate cheque to “UCL Development Fund – Denys Holland Scholarship”, accompanied by the Gift Aid form attached.
