LLM programme

UCL LAWS

Preparing an application

1 Before applying, review the UCL Laws LLM webpages to learn about the programme and check the entry requirements.

2 Review our available specialisms and decide whether to apply to a specialism route or the general LLM.

LLM specialism route   General LLM

www.ucl.ac.uk/laws/study/llm-master-laws

3 You will need to provide

An electronic copy of your academic transcript
(if not in English an official translation is needed)

+ A personal statement

+ A piece of written work

+ One reference

4 Submit your application and all supporting documents to the UCL online application portal.
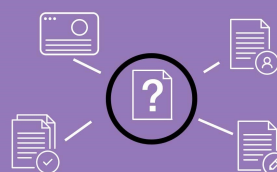

www.ucl.ac.uk/prospective-students/graduate/apply

Important

Your application will not be assessed until all documents are supplied.

LLM programme

UCL LAWS

Assessing your application

Important ?

You may be contacted throughout this process to supply any missing documents.

5 UCL Graduate Admissions Team – based in central UCL

LAWS Graduate Admissions Team – based in the Faculty

The UCL Graduate Admissions Team will review your application and check that it is complete.

Your completed application will be sent to our admissions team in the Faculty of Laws to be assessed.

We will assess your application to verify if you meet the programme entry requirements.

We will either recommend your offer has been successful or unsuccessful to the UCL Graduate Admissions Team.

The UCL Graduate Admissions Team will process your offer or unsuccessful application in the portal.

6 An offer may be conditional on completion of academic qualifications and/or proof of your English language proficiency.

7 You will have a certain amount of time to accept your offer and later pay a deposit.

www.ucl.ac.uk/laws/study/llm-master-laws