

UCL Student Centre Prayer & Meditation Room Regulations

1. The Prayer & Meditation Rooms are available for religious observance, prayer, meditation and mindfulness; please respect this and do not use them as a lounge, study area or common room.
2. Nothing is to be eaten or drunk in the Prayer & Meditation Rooms except for bottled water.
3. Only religious texts and devotional items may be stored in the Prayer & Rooms; these must be stored at the side of the room or in the racks provided. Any personal possessions left in rooms at the end of the day will be handed to lost property.
4. The Meditation Room can be booked for prayer, worship and meditation by UCL Student Union Societies. This is done through the Chaplain – please ask in the office, or send an email to chaplain@ucl.ac.uk
The Prayer Room is not a bookable space.
5. Please do not use mobile phones or laptops in the Prayer & Meditation Rooms, and keep conversation to a minimum.
