Dear all,

A reminder that the Virtual Tea Room is open for people to chat during lunch every Friday. Book a place for today or for the next few Fridays here:

Virtual Tea Room

Join us for a cup of tea and an informal chat at the end of the week

www.eventbrite.co.uk

Grab your lunch and a cup of tea and join us for this informal session, where you can connect with colleagues and students, reflect on the week and take a break from work or studies. After an introduction, you will join a tea room with 3-4 people, who you can get to know better and share your thoughts on one of suggested topics.

Depending on the number of people in the room, participants may be split into breakout rooms, where you can get to know better and share your thoughts on one of suggested topics.

Warm regards,
Lana
