

The Nuffield Dyspraxia Programme

18th - 19th May 2020 Ref: 724/20 £350 Max. participants: 24

This course is suitable for Speech and Language Therapists who want to update their knowledge of developmental verbal dyspraxia and to learn about the third edition of the Nuffield Dyspraxia Programme. Topics include theoretical aspects, assessment, diagnostic approaches, management issues and therapy approaches. There will be lecture and workshop sessions.

PROGRAMME OUTLINE

Day One

9.30am Registration & coffee (on day one only)
9.45am Introduction
10.05am Developmental verbal dyspraxia – A review of the literature
11am Coffee
11.20am Assessment
12.30pm Lunch
1.30pm Assessment continued & NDP3 workshop session
2.30pm Differential Diagnosis
3.00pm Tea
3.20pm Introduction to the NDP3 treatment approach
4.30pm Finish

Day Two

9.30am NDP3 therapy approach continued & treatment planning
11.00am Coffee
11.20am Treatment planning using NDP3
12.30pm Lunch
1.30pm Treatment planning using NDP3 continued
3.00pm Tea
3.20pm Case Management / Clinical Queries
4.20pm Summing up
4.30pm Finish

At the end of the course participants will receive a Certificate of Attendance.

COURSE TUTORS

Pam Williams and team from the Nuffield Hearing and Speech Centre.