Public events

We run a wide range of events that are open to the public and many of them are free. For example:

// our Lunch Hour Lectures are an opportunity for you to sample the exceptional research work taking place at UCL. Speakers are drawn from across the university and lectures frequently showcase new research and recent academic publications. Recent topics have included 'A Local History of the Underground' and 'The Large Hadron Collider and the Higgs Boson'.

// our various museums host exhibitions, film screenings, talks and workshops

// the UCL Slade School of Fine Art and UCL Bartlett School of Architecture summer shows are open to the public

// UCL's Chamber Music Club holds an annual series of concerts

// We even have an academic stand-up comedy night, the acclaimed Bright Club!
