2nd International Conference on The Rohingya Crisis in Comparative Perspective

03-04 December 2020

Panel discussion on COVID-19 challenges in the camps (11:30-12:00 GMT)

Panel discussion on Human Rights and Refugee Advocacy: Activist Perspectives (3:00-4:00 GMT)

Presenters will showcase their work, which will be interdisciplinary in nature and will cover a range of topics especially targeting the following:

- Rohingya crisis: documentary, photo exhibition and arts
- Natural hazards perspective in the camps
- COVID-19 challenges in the camps
- Rohingya diaspora – case studies from Bangladesh, India, Malaysia, and Saudi Arabia
- Rohingya Youth Leader
- Research Assistant, Department for Risk and Disaster Reduction, University College London, UK

Sessions – Day 2 (3 December 2020)

In conversation with Rohingya activists (14:45–15:45 GMT)

Panel discussion on Human Rights and Refugee Advocacy: Activist Perspectives (3:00-4:00 GMT)

Co-Chair

Director, Centre for Genocide Studies, Professor of International Relations, National University of Singapore, Singapore

Inaugural Session

Speaker

Moderator

Closing Session

Moderator & Conference Organiser

Co-Moderator

Speaker

Moderator

Moderator

Speaker