

Spices & Medicine

Fall 2016 Half-day Symposium

FOOD AND MEDICAL TRADITIONS FROM THE PLANT WORLD: EXPLORING HERBAL USES

UCL School of Pharmacy

12 October 2016

1:30 – 5:30 pm

- 1330 – 1400: POSTER SESSION and REGISTRATION – SQUARE LOUNGE (ground floor)
- 1400 – 1700: SYMPOSIUM – JOHN HANBURY THEATRE (second floor)
Chaired by Prof Michael Heinrich
UCL School of Pharmacy, UK
- 1400 – 1430: Historical Approaches in Modern Drug Discovery: Options, Chances, Potential
Prof. Sabine Anagnostou
University of Marburg, Germany
- 1430 – 1500: Tea from China: Explaining the Differences in Quality
Prof. Monique S.J. Simmonds, OBE and Rui Fang
Royal Botanic Gardens, Kew, UK
- 1500 – 1520: The Use of Herbal Medicines by South Asian Diasporic Communities in the UK
Dr. Sukvinder Bhamra
University of Kent, UK
- 1520-1530: SHORT BREAK
- 1530 – 1550: Transnational and Generational Influences on Food-Plant Use: A British Bengali Case
Dr. Hannah Jennings
University College London, UK
- 1550 – 1610: *Medicinal Plants' Contribution to Healthcare Sovereignty and Security:
The Case of Diabetes*
Dr. Peter Giovannini
Royal Botanic Gardens, Kew, UK
- 1610 – 1640: Antimicrobial Resistance and Plant-derived Secondary Metabolites
Dr. Mukhlesur Rahman
University of East London, UK
- 1640 – 1700: Rhodiola rosea - The Golden Root
Dr. Anthony Booker
University College London and University of Westminster, UK
- 1700 – 1730: RECEPTION and POSTER SESSION – SQUARE LOUNGE (ground floor)