Preliminary business

1 TERMS OF REFERENCE, CONSTITUTION AND MEMBERSHIP 2015-16
[PAPERS 1-01 – 1-03, 2015-16]

1.1 Received – AB’s terms of reference, constitution and membership for the session 2015-16 and a note by the Secretary on AB Standing Orders.

2 MINUTES OF 13 MAY 2015 MEETING

2.1 Approved – the Minutes of the Academic Board meeting held on 13 May 2015 [AB Minutes 36-46, 2014-15].
3 MATTERS ARISING FROM THE MINUTES

3A Global Education Strategy
[AB Minute 37A, [13 May 2015]]

3A.1 The VP (International) reported that Council had approved the final draft of the GES at its meeting on 30 March 2015 and the Strategy was communicated to colleagues in May. As a result of the GES, restructuring and reappointment activities were completed over the Summer period. The VP Office would close and reopen as a fully staffed GES Office in November.

3A.2 Seven Pro Vice-Provosts have been appointed and will chair regional networks to oversee UCL’s engagement and partnership activity.

Matters for discussion

4 PROVOST’S BUSINESS

4A Government’s Spending Review

4A.1 The Provost reported on the significant cuts proposed across all government departments including HEFCE, RCs and QAA, TEF and WP. The consequence on HEFCE funding remained a concern.

4B Teaching Excellence Framework

4B.1 A Government Green paper on TEF would be published soon outlining plans for a sector wide approach to recognising and rewarding excellent teaching. The focus would be on output measures including retention, graduate destinations and the NSS. These measures would provide a system to decide whether universities can increase fees for UG students and may extend to PGT student fees in future.

4C NSS

4C.1 The NSS scores for UCL were disappointing and reinforced the need for UCL to focus more effort on improving the student experience. Some subject areas perform extremely well, initial exploration suggests that this is down to a strong relationship between staff and students. Many subject areas would need to intensify their focus on the student experience in order to improve scores, a concerted effort over a number of years would be required to place UCL in a stronger position.
4D Equality and Diversity

4D.1 UCL achieved the Silver Athena Swan Award, a significant accomplishment making UCL one of only eight Universities in UK to achieve this standard. UCL also participated in a pilot in the Race Equality Charter marker and achieved a Bronze award. Eight out of sixteen universities that participated in the pilot achieved the Bronze award. Currently UCL is the only University in the UK holding both awards, clearly emphasising the level of importance of these issues at UCL.

5 VICE-PROVOST (EDUCATION & STUDENT AFFAIRS) ANNUAL REPORT TO COUNCIL
[PAPER 1-04, 2015-16]

5.1 Received – an oral introduction to the paper from Professor Anthony Smith, Vice-Provost (Education and Student Affairs)

5.2 The VP reported that student experience was a key issue that had been further emphasised by the NSS. The inconsistencies across departments and faculties require colleagues to work together and develop good practice. Many areas in UCL conduct work that is best in the sector which needs to be recognised and shared across UCL to improve the overall student experience.

6 NATIONAL STUDENT SURVEY – UPDATE

6.1 Received – an update from Professor Anthony Smith, Vice-Provost (Education and Student Affairs)

6.2 The VP reported that headline results were derived from Institutional data from the 23 questions asked during the NSS. Question 22 of the survey asked students to comment on their overall satisfaction where UCL declined by 3 points, resulting in the largest decline in the Russell Group.

6.3 The VP highlighted that UCL was now in the lower quartile at 124th position in the sector. Based on the scores, Assessment and Feedback was clearly the area of biggest concern and this was also a common theme expressed by External Examiners in their annual reports.

6.4 The ASER process, replacing AM, will provide the focal point for action planning this with support from Academic Services and CALT. It was also noted that a key feature of the ASER process is the involvement of students in analysing data and developing action plans in response to key issues.

6.5 In response to members’ comments, the VP reported that there would be different cycles of the ASER process for UG and PGT and PTES would be used to inform the ASER PGT process in the next cycle to make sure that the PGT student experience is effectively reflected.

6.6 The VP responded to some members’ comments on the production of the examinations timetable, which had been the focus last year, and had featured as an issue again. This year, a plan would be in place for an earlier publication of the examinations timetable in response to student feedback.
7 EDUCATION STRATEGY
[PAPER 1-05, 2015-16]

7.1 Received – an oral introduction to the paper from Professor Anthony Smith, Vice-Provost (Education and Student Affairs)

7.2 The VP reported that the first phase of consultation had included consultation with students and staff across UCL and a number of excellent suggestions had come forward to shape the draft proposed at the meeting. A particular theme that emerged from the consultation was the importance of working with students as partners in education, involved in all areas of the development and implementation stages of the Strategy.

7.3 In response to some members’ comments, the VP identified different enablers in the Strategy that would measure success, recognition for teaching and leadership and rebuilding of systems. The stronger points of UCL such as developing and enhancing intellectual curiosity would be strengthened. Through the Connected Curriculum initiative, a development of assessment and programme components that would be meaningful to students would occur.

8 DOCTORAL EDUCATION AT UCL
[PAPER 1-06, 2015-16]

8.1 Received – an oral introduction to the paper from Professor David Bogle, Pro-Vice-Provost (Doctoral School)

8.2 The Pro Vice-Provost (Doctoral School) reported that the strategy had been developed to align with UCL 2034, the Research Strategy and to build on the contents of Faculty Doctoral Strategies. A key focus was developing and training researchers/doctoral candidates in academic leadership and research excellence to develop their capacity to engage with multiple career options post-completion.

8.3 In response to comments from members, it was noted that there was a need to include an explicit mention on the PGR opportunities available to develop leadership skills, through UCL Arena and active involvement in the academic life of departments.

9 QAA HIGHER EDUCATION REVIEW – UPDATE

9.1 Received – an update from Professor Anthony Smith, Chair of the HER Strategy Group

9.2 The Chair of the HER Strategy Group reported that the QAA HER was scheduled for May 2016 and various groups had been organised to prepare for the review. A communications plan has been agreed and information to Departments would be circulated through the Teaching Committees.

9.3 It was reported that the Review Team members had been appointed from five Universities, Kent, Durham, Cambridge, Sheffield and Salford reflecting a wide spectrum of experience in the sector and leadership of education.
9.4 In response to a member’s comment, the Director of Academic Services explained that the SED would be an opportunity to describe institution level arrangements for managing standards and quality, the review teams would not be drilling into details of individual departments teaching and assessment arrangements.

10 REGULATIONS FOR MANAGEMENT
[PAPER 1-07, 2015-16]

10.1 Received – an oral introduction to the paper from Ms Wendy Appleby, Registrar

10.2 The Registrar reported that as a result of the Committee of University Chairs publishing new guidance on effective governance, the regulations for management had been reviewed and updated to remove unnecessary detail and streamline some processes.

10.3 In response to member’s queries, the Registrar explained that approval of the management regulations is Council’s responsibility and wider governance matters were outside AB’s authority, however comments and feedback from AB members were welcome and would be reflected when the proposals are presented to Council.

Other matters for approval or information

11 Lead Officer Report 2014-15: Careers and Employability
[PAPER 1-08, 2015-16]

11.1 Received – the annual lead officer report for 2014-15.
