Summer Reading List 2018 for new students

Economics

Complementary Reading:
Stiglitz, JE. & Driffill, Economics (WWNorton & Co., 2000) ISBN. 0-393-97584-3 (pbk)

Students who have already taken ‘A’ level Economics may find the following interesting:
Tim Harford, The Undercover Economist
John Kay, The Truth about Markets: their Genius, their Limits, their Follies

Business Studies (BA Economics and Business w EE Studies only)

Mathematics and Statistics (BA Economics and Business w EE Studies only)
Croft, Davison and Hargreaves, Introduction to Engineering Mathematics (Addison-Wesley)
Stroud, K.A., EngineeringMathematics (Palgrave)
Lawson, Hubbard and Pugh, Maths and Statistics for Business (Longman, 1995)