Thursday 17 June

9.15 Introduction

9.30–10.50 Migration trends
Anzhela Popyk, Magdalena Lesińska and Karolis Dambrauskas, ‘From “liquid” to “solid”: the evolution of the post-accession diasporas of Poland’
Olga Czeranowska, Iga Wernińska-Wiśnicka and Izabela Grabowska, ‘Socio-demographic portraits of migrants from Poland and migrant selectivity’

11.10–12.30 Transnational families during the pandemic
Weronika Kloc-Nowak and Louise Ryan, ‘Ageing (grand)parents of Polish migrants, COVID-19 and the efforts to stay in touch while staying at home’

2.00–4.00 Precariousness and discrimination
Agnieszka Radziwinowiczówna and Benjamin Morgan, ‘Partners in deportation: mapping the actors involved in the biopolitical deportation of homeless EU citizens from the UK, 2010-17’
Kathy Burrell and Mateus Schweyher, ‘”You can’t do anything if you don’t have a personal number”: Polish migrants’ experiences of everyday bordering in Sweden’
Mateus Schweyher, ‘Between precarious work and inferior social rights: EU citizenship of Polish labour migrants in Norway’

Friday 18 June

9.30–10.50 Sources of security
Kamil Łuczaj, ‘Facing Three Crises: Polish migrant academics in times of the Global Financial Crisis, Brexit, and COVID-19’
Kamil Matuszczyk, ‘Income, job stability or the security during retirement? Strategies of Polish migrant care workers in Germany towards labour market security’

11.10–12.30 Acculturation and ‘embedding’
Izabela Grabowska, ‘“Tacit embedding” in the British labour market by Polish migrants in comparison to Lithuanian migrants’
Nathaniel Dziura, ‘Variation and acculturation: Language and identity in LGBTQ+ Polish migrants to England’

2.00–4.00 Activism and entrepreneurship
Sara Young and Anne White, ‘Polish Saturday schools as civil society organisations during the COVID-19 pandemic’
Katarzyna Andrejuk, ‘From ethnic bubbles to superdiversity. Responses to crisis and new patterns of entrepreneurship among Polish migrants in the UK’
Piotr Goldstein, ‘Spółdzielnia / Cooperative’ (film)