

COUNTDOWN TO UCL

UCL

Be part of UCL Students' community

CORONAVIRUS FAQs - We're committed to making sure you can receive a world-class education and student experience in September, and that you can do so safely and with the flexibility you need. Check our coronavirus FAQs regularly for all the latest on how we're doing this.

Dear `${Contacts.First Name}`,

In this fifth issue of the Countdown to UCL, we'll be introducing you to Students' Union UCL, your representative body and home to clubs and societies, support services, spaces for you and much more. Welcome to your Students' Union – where community happens.

This is the last time you'll hear from us until after A Level Results Day on 13 August – good luck if you'll be receiving results on the day! You can still get ahead and continue preparing for your time at UCL by accessing all our Countdown to UCL content here, and if you ultimately find yourself going down a different path, then we wish you all the best!

Students' Union UCL

This week we have Students' Union UCL taking over your Countdown to UCL. They'll be giving you insights into who they are, the support they can offer you, and the many ways in which you can get involved!

Visit the Students' Union section of the Countdown to UCL blog.

UCL Engineering Society (UCLES)

The UCL Engineering Society (UCLES) is our largest STEM society and your first destination for all things social, career, or hackathon and engineering projects-related. Centred around collaboration, innovation and discovery, UCLES provides the best opportunities and events to our members. We host the largest ball at UCL (an unforgettable freshers' experience) and the LONDON 2050 conference. Find out more.

UCL Engineering Without Borders Society

Engineers Without Borders UK (EWB UK) is a global movement engineering a better future. The international development NGO works to inspire, enable and influence the engineering community to serve all people and the planet better than ever before. Find out more.
