

Using your parent's or legal guardian's bank account

If you do not have the money in your own name and you are using your parent's or legal guardian's bank account, you will be required to submit further documents.

You will have to ask your parent/legal guardian to write a letter confirming that they have given their permission for you to use their money. See example of letter below. The letter must state:

- the relationship between you and parent or legal guardian; and
- that they have given their consent to you using their funds to study in the UK

	Your Contact Address insert your parent(s)/legal guardian's name & home address here
Date insert current date

To Whom It May Concern,
Dear Sir/Madam,
I, [insert full name of parent or legal guardian] confirm that I am the parent/legal guardian [delete as appropriate] of [insert your (student's) name here] .
I consent to [insert student's name here] using my funds while studying in the United Kingdom.
Yours faithfully,
[signature of parent or legal guardian]
[print Full Name of parent or legal guardian here]

In addition, you will have to provide one of the following as evidence of your relationship with your parent(s) or legal guardian:

- your birth certificate showing the names of your parent(s); or
- your certificate of adoption showing names of both parent(s) or legal guardian; or
- an official Court document confirming the legal guardianship order and naming you and the legal guardian (an affidavit will not be accepted)

This document must be the original or a notarised copy. Where documents are not in English or Welsh, you will have to get them professionally translated to meet the Home Office's criteria.
