Your Journey to Joining UCL

Pre-Enrolment explained

Pre-enrolment is an online task where you confirm the details we hold about you and your programme. You will get an email asking to complete pre-enrolment.

Step 1: Create a UCL account

So, you've received your invitation to pre-enrol? The first thing you need to do is set up your UCL account. You can do that on our MyAccount page.

You'll need access to a mobile or email and your student number. Your student number can be found in your invitation to pre-enrol or emails from admissions.

Step 2: Log on to Portico

Log on to Portico using your UCL account ID and password.

Your UCL ID consists of 7 letters, the last few are your initials. e.g Bob Smith UTUTUBS

Step 3: Upload your ID and a photo of yourself

Once you have logged on, we'll ask you to upload copies of your identity documentation. e.g. Drivers Licence or Passport.

You will also be asked to provide a photo of yourself so we are able to confirm your documents. Image guidelines are available online.

Step 4: Check and confirm details

Next, we'll ask you to check that the details we have about you, your trusted contact, and your programme of study are correct.

At this stage, you can also declare a disability or let us know of any reasonable adjustment needs you may have.

Step 5: Confirmation of pre-enrolment

Now, you have completed pre-enrolment and you should receive a confirmation email. All that's left to do is to wait for your documents to be checked and for your enrolment confirmation email to arrive!

This can take up to a week during busy periods.

Next Steps

Once you've received your enrolment confirmation email, you will be able to book your ID card collection slot.

If there are any issues with your enrolment, we will contact you via email.

Need more help?

Check out Pre-Enrolment Explained and our FAQs on the New Students' Website.

Just select your student group for the right info.

Uploading Visa Documents

If you need a visa to study at UCL; you'll need to upload evidence of it to Portico during pre-enrolment.

Step 1: Check your visa requirements

If you aren't sure what you need to upload to Portico, you can check using our Visa Document Guidelines.

Just select the type of course you are studying and how you applied for your visa, and it will show you an example of the documents you need.

Step 2: Arrive in the UK (if applicable)

If you applied for your visa from outside the UK, you will need to upload evidence that you have arrived in the UK. This could be an entry clearance travel vignette with a UK arrival stamp in your passport, or your boarding pass.

You won't be able to complete enrolment until you have arrived in the UK.

Step 3: Upload copies of your visa documents

Once you have started pre-enrolment you will be asked to upload copies of your visa documents. This will happen at the same stage you upload your passport and a photo of yourself.

You can log back onto Portico to do this if you previously needed to arrive in the UK first.

Step 4: Complete pre-enrolment

It's really important you complete any remaining pre-enrolment steps and upload everything requested, as we can't enrol you unless you have.

Once this is done you will receive an email confirming your pre-enrolment.

Your UCL ID card

Your ID card is essential for daily life at UCL.

Collecting your ID card

Once you have received your enrolment confirmation email, your ID card will be able to be printed. Your enrolment confirmed email will contain instructions on where to collect your ID card, and how to book a collection slot.

If you are in UCL accommodation, your ID card may be ready for you to collect there. Check with your accommodation team.

What will you need?

When you collect your ID card you will need to bring a few things with you:

- Photo ID (no photocopies)
e.g. your passport or BRP
- Student Number
e.g. 27014382
- Evidence you've been enrolled
e.g. your enrolment confirmation email or enrolment status on Portico

What is your ID card for?

- Accessing buildings
- Using the Library
- Register UCL
- Printing

Register UCL

You can use your ID card to register your attendance by tapping your card as you enter the room.

International Student Support

Whatever your programme is, there's a wide array of support available.

Life at UCL

Coming to live in London is a huge step for anyone, especially an international student. London is a large city and can sometimes feel a bit chaotic but remember that with a little time and effort you're sure to feel settled in and part of the capital's vibrant and diverse community.

A great way to start getting settled in is to tick off all the things you'll need to live here comfortably such as opening a bank account and registering with a GP. If you find yourself feeling homesick, try your best to get involved. There are lots of ways to do this, from joining a club or society in the Students' Union to getting out and exploring your neighbourhood with friends – UCL is surrounded by green spaces that are perfect for relaxing. It's important to speak to others about your feelings – you'll probably find that lots of those around you are feeling the same way! It takes time to build up a network of friends and colleagues, so be patient and keep going!

International students – Culture shock

If this is your first time living in the UK, you may find yourself experiencing culture shock. Adapting to a new environment can be a challenging learning process. This is completely normal and can happen even if you've carried out extensive preparation before your arrival or if you have travelled a lot previously.

Make sure you keep in touch with friends and family back home, surround yourself with familiar objects and explore the opportunities living in a new country offers you. The International Student Support team in Student Support and Wellbeing can help you acclimatise and settle in, so get in touch with them via askUCL (see page 23) and they'll do their best to help. You should also check out the international students website!

Visa and Immigration

The Immigration Advice & Compliance Team provides guidance for international students applying for visas to study at UCL, including information on Student visas, Standard Visitor Visas, Biometric Residence Permits (BRP), Digital Immigration Status, working in the UK, the Academic Technology Approval Scheme (ATAS), medical electives, and the Graduate Route visa.

Applying for a Visa

If you are coming to study in the UK for more than 6 months, then you will require a Student visa. Applying for a Student visa should be fairly straight forward as long as you are prepared. For information about how to apply under the Student visa route and what it means to hold a Student visa please visit this link.

If you are coming to study in the UK for less than 6 months, you will either be a non-visa national, or will need to apply for a standard visitor visa.

Biometric Residence Permit (BRP)

Biometric Residence Permits (BRPs) are secure ID cards that contain personal details and biometric information. Find out more about how to collect your Biometric Residence Permit, what information is included on your BRP, and what to do if you lose it by visiting this web page.

Confirmation of Acceptance (CAS)

A Confirmation of Acceptance for Studies (CAS) number is a unique 14 digit reference given to you by UCL (your sponsor). UKVI will use this number to confirm that you are a genuine student. They do this by using it to access your CAS record on their secure database. Your CAS record contains information supplied by UCL to UKVI about you and your course.

You will receive a CAS statement from UCL which contains your CAS number and additional information you will need from UCL to make a Student visa application. A CAS number is valid for use for 6 months from the date it was issued. It can be used only once for a single application. You can only obtain a CAS once you have an unconditional offer.

For more information on anything related to visas and immigration, check out this web page.

Students' Union UCL

Students' Union UCL is here to help you live your best student life at university. With thousands of opportunities each year to meet new people, learn new skills, experience new things and make the most of UCL.

Students' Union UCL

Learning is a social activity, and the Union is here to give all students an amazing experience alongside their studies.

The Union runs UCL's sports, arts, volunteering, and cultural engagement programmes, bringing thousands of students together every year to experience new things, learn from each other, and have fun.

The Union gives students skills for life, a community that supports them, and experiences they won't find anywhere else.

Who we are

We're the largest, and most diverse, student-community in the UK, and the Union's student-led groups and student-run spaces are at the centre of campus life.

We want our vibrant student communities to thrive, and each year the Union hosts more than 6,000 events - helping students meet people, try new things, discover London, make friends, and develop skills.

Campus Venues

The Union's range of bars, cafés, shops and other services are run as social enterprises. When you buy a coffee from their cafés, you invest in the student community at UCL. Every penny of profit is put back into funding student activities, helping to fund trips and events.

These on-campus venues also provide a great place to work, with hundreds of part-time jobs available each year that fit around your studies.

Student Led

Students' Union UCL is a democratic, student-led organisation. Students decide what happens in their Union by voting, debating ideas, and electing representatives as leaders of their community.

Student leaders of the Union are part of UCL's Council and committees, influencing the way UCL works.

More than 2,000 of the Union's voluntary Academic Representatives shape the educational experience at UCL through their work.

The Union is working in partnership with UCL to make student-life better for everyone in our community.

Start your Journey with the Students' union now!

Where to on campus

Not sure where to go for what?

Study

Whether you want to study in silence or work collaboratively, UCL has plenty of study spaces including the Student Centre, Main Library, or Senate House. You can even book a space!

Grab lunch

The Wilkins Refectory dishes up freshly-cooked meals. Or for a quick lunch, check out the Student's Union Cafés, Stone Willy's Pizza or the Bloomsbury Farmers' Market. Brought in your own? Find a microwave.

Park your bike

We have a variety of bike parking spaces available on campus, and a handy map of them. This map also shows you bike shops and where you can get a shower post ride!

Fill your water bottle

Sustainable UCL is committed to making free drinking water accessible for students and UCL is increasing the number of water fountains on campus. Find them all here.

Go for a drink

The Students' Union UCL has several bars and cafés for you to try: The Huntley, Phineas and The Institute Bar, which is located at the Institute of Education and has an open terrace.

Get some fresh air

UCL may be in central London, but there are various parks and green spaces where you can connect with nature.

Keep active

Join our campus gym Bloomsbury Fitness or try out a Project Active session for low cost activity on or around campus. Or take advantage of world-class sporting facilities close to our UCL East campus.

Accommodation

Housing is important and we want to support our students, whether you're living in UCL halls, a private rental, or somewhere else.

UCL Accommodation

Offers for UCL Accommodation are sent out from July until the end of August. Follow @uclaccommodation on Instagram to stay up to date on all things halls. If you did not meet the eligibility criteria or did not apply, we advise exploring Alternative Accommodation options.

Help Finding Private Accommodation

Most students at UCL live in private accommodation – either a rental from a landlord or private student halls. Visit UCL's Alternative Accommodation page to read more about providers and services available. We also have webinar you can watch to help!

The University of London Housing Advice Service has a Private Housing Guide with info on everything from average rents to reading your contract. For those requiring more complex support, they offer contract checking and legal advice.

The Student's Union also offers an Advice Service, including help for students at risk of homelessness.

UCL Rent Guarantor Scheme

Students are usually required to have a UK-based guarantor – someone who agrees to pay their rent if they can't. For international students (and UK students in exceptional circumstances), UCL offers a Rent Guarantor Scheme (RGS).

Information about the RGS and how to apply is on the Alternative Accommodation page.

Council Tax

Households occupied solely by full-time students are exempt from paying council tax. If you don't live in halls, you'll need to apply for an exemption through your local council. Check out this website for more information. There's also more guidance on council tax in the Private Housing Guide.

Library Services

UCL has many libraries and learning spaces across London, all fully equipped to support your studies, with individual and group study spaces. Our extensive online library includes hundreds of thousands of resources, available to you anytime and anywhere.

Using Libraries

Access any of our libraries and learning spaces with your UCL ID card. You can view real-time study space availability on the Library Services website, and in the UCL Go app, and can book individual or group study spaces online.

Library opening times vary, with several libraries open until midnight. The Student Centre is open 24 hours a day.

Accessing materials

Find electronic resources, books, journals and much more using Explore, the library catalogue. Borrow items using your UCL ID card and try our Click and Collect or Scan and Send services.

In many cases, materials on your reading lists will also be available in a digital format online. Past exam papers are also available online.

Library Help

We are here to help. Contact us through our online chat service, by email library@ucl.ac.uk or at help and enquiry points in our libraries and library spaces.

Library skills training and guidance is available through LibrarySkills@UCL. Specialist librarians provide guidance for in-depth research for your subject area.

Getting Started

Find everything you need to get started on the UCL Library Services Website.

International Students

You can attend an International Student Library Seminar for information on UCL library services.

Student Support & Wellbeing

Student Support and Wellbeing provides a wide range of services to nurture and maintain your personal wellbeing during your time at UCL. We ensure that all students are supported to realise their full potential and attain long term benefits from studying at UCL.

What you can expect

We offer support for disabilities, mental health, accessing counselling, faith practices, studying abroad and additional enquiries about university life.

Throughout the academic year, SSW holds numerous events to help build your sense of belonging and support your wellbeing at every stage of university life. Check out the event schedule.

Student Advisers

UCL Student Advisers are the key contact for first-year undergraduates in each department for any wellbeing, support and student experience matters. Student Advisers help you transition into university life and guide you through life at UCL, from exam management, hosting events to signposting you to other UCL/external support services. To meet your departmental Student Adviser, please see our website.

Transition Mentors

The Transition Mentor Programme provides all undergraduate first-year students with a peer mentor from your degree programme. Your Transition Mentor will help you feel at home and part of our community, as well as give advice on academic topics, support services and helping you get involved in student life.

Student Support and Psychological Wellbeing

The Student Support and Psychological Wellbeing team can help to address any personal, emotional or psychological concerns you may have whilst studying at UCL. All our support services are free of charge.

We offer short-term counselling, single session therapy, psychiatric support and group workshops to undergraduate and Master's students registered at UCL.

If you are a new PhD or doctoral student, you can access counselling and additional support for both personal and work-related matters through Spectrum Life.

To learn how you can book an appointment, please visit the SPCS website. Or, to contact the team email spcs-info@ucl.ac.uk

Disability, Mental Health and Wellbeing

The Disability, Mental Health and Wellbeing team provides guidance and support on issues around disability, mental health and wellbeing to enhance access to study. Our advisers can work with you to find solutions, improve accessibility and support you to have equal chances of success by removing barriers.

We provide various forms of support and reasonable adjustments. We work with you and the department to develop a Summary of Reasonable Adjustments (SoRA) that is tailored to your individual needs. You will get to discuss this when you meet with an adviser. The team also offer specialist mentoring and study skills support.

For more information on how to access the services, please visit the Disability, Mental Health Wellbeing website. Or, to contact the team, log into askUCL to make a query

Faith Support

The Faith support team provides confidential support about anything relating to your faith or belief background, or, if you don't identify with any faith at all. Whether you are looking for a place of worship in London or would like to discuss a personal faith issue, we offer support for anything impacting your time at UCL.

UCL is a secular institution with no religious affiliation. However, UCL is also committed to providing an inclusive learning and working environment where students and staff of all religions, and none, can thrive. All major faiths are represented by a Students' Union student society at UCL.

You can find more information on the Faith Support Website.

You can contact Reverend Reid Humble the Chaplain and Interfaith Adviser by emailing chaplaincy@ucl.ac.uk or Book a One-to-One appointment.

For international students there is an International Student Religion and Faith Seminar you can attend.

Student Queries

Part of UCL Student Support and Wellbeing, the Student Enquiries Centre (SEC) team exists to support students with enquiries and UCL processes.

How the Student Enquiries Centre can help

Staff in the Student Enquiries Centre can assist with the following topics and more:

- Confirmation of student status
- Schengen visa letters
- Updating student details
- Changes to your studies
- Confirmation of award
- Fees and funding enquiries
- International student support
- Third-party verification of studies and qualifications
- HEDD validation
- DBS initiations
- DBS ID checks
- Help with accessing Disability and Mental Health services

- Signing forms for official purposes
- Degree Certificates
- Transcripts

Visiting the Student Enquiries Centre

Located on Floor 1 of the Student Centre, the Student Enquiries Centre is a face-to-face service where students can ask questions about a wide variety of topics. Their extended opening hours allow students with other commitments to visit at a time suitable for them.

Check out our website or contact us via askUCL

Support Support and Wellbeing Phoneline

+44 (0) 20 3108 8836

The Support Support and Wellbeing phone line is available to students to call for assistance with enquiries related to all matters concerning Disability, Mental Health and Wellbeing, Psychological and Counselling Services and General Enquiries. Staff are available to help students access services and advise on matters concerning appointments, documents, and processes.

askUCL

askUCL is an information hub, a self-help centre and student enquiry system for UCL students.

How to access

You can access this service via:

- The QR code, below

- askUCL webpage
- UCL Go app
- UCL Moodle homepage
- Any search engine, type: askUCL
- Hyperlinks on selected student support webpages

On the FAQ homepage you can:

- Browse the Trending FAQs that follow events in the academic year
- Check out the Quick Links for easy access to contact details, advice and forms
- Type a keyword relevant to your question in the Search for an Answer box for access to the entire knowledge base of 600+ FAQs
- Click on the Log an Enquiry button and complete the form if you didn't find the answer to your question

Logged Enquiries

All askUCL enquiries receive a personalised answer during normal working hours.

You can track your enquiry which allows you to see which team is dealing with your enquiry and what action has been taken.

You will receive a notification each time your enquiry is updated and when it's resolved.

You can re-open and update your enquiry at any time.

View all your askUCL interactions with support staff via My Enquiries.

Other Essentials

We have collected a list of useful resources for a whole host of essentials

Register For a GP

We strongly recommend you register with a GP shortly after arriving at UCL to access health care easily. Doctors, also known as general practitioners (GPs), are based in surgeries or practices. Your GP is your first point of contact for most health concerns, treatment and referral to a specialist if needed. Ridgmount Practice is UCL's partner GP and is located very close to campus. Most UCL students can register at Ridgmount Practice. Scan the QR code to register:

UCL 101: A guide to your first term

UCL 101 is an in-person talk designed to answer all your questions about starting at UCL. By attending UCL 101, you should feel confident in accessing support services and receive ‘insider tips’ from current students to make the most of your time at UCL. Each UCL 101 is split into distinct sections, covering ‘what I wish I knew before starting at UCL’, general advice and information, and a Q&A section. We run different sessions for Undergraduates and Postgraduate students, tailoring information to that study level.

Undergraduates, check your induction timetable for your allocated slot.

Postgraduates (PGT), there are three ticketed in-person events (see the timetable) with one of them live streamed so you can tune in and submit questions remotely from home. Make sure to get your ticket!

Welcome Fair

Your chance to talk to hundreds of our brilliant sports clubs, societies, and student-led Networks. Alongside student-led clubs, there’s a huge selection of national and local businesses, ready and waiting with 1,000’s of freebies. Each day there will be more than 200 different student-led groups so book your ticket!

Welcome Ambassadors

On the Bloomsbury and UCL East campuses, there will be current UCL students working as Welcome Ambassadors. They will be wearing blue UCL t-shirts and are there to help you find your way around campus and answer any questions you may have! Welcome Team staff will also be there to help wearing blue ‘Ask Us’ lanyards.
