

COUNTDOWN TO UCL

Make the most of your skills at UCL!

Powered by MotionMail ©

WELCOME TO A NEW YEAR AT UCL - We're committed to making sure you can receive a world-class education and student experience in September, and that you can do so safely and with the flexibility you need. Check the UCL Students website regularly for all the latest on how we're doing this.

Dear ${Contacts.First Name},

There is so much more to university life than just your academic studies. Of course your studies are important, but there are also many other ways to enrich yourself whilst at UCL. This is why for Countdown email number 12, we shine a light on Skills and Opportunities.

Skills and Opportunities

As a new student at UCL, there are all kinds of extra-curricular opportunities to take advantage of. Read these articles to find out how you can make the most of your time outside the classroom and get involved.

Volunteering changed my time at UCL

Volunteering is a rewarding way to spend your time, develop your skills, expand your horizons and make a difference. Zayna, an undergraduate student at UCL, shares her volunteering story and how it shaped her UCL experience. Read on.

Support from day one of your UCL journey - students, join the Alumni Online Community!

Connect and learn from volunteer alumni mentors worldwide, through UCL's exclusive Alumni Online Community. Find out how you can start shaping your future.

UCL Culture - UCL museums, galleries and theatres

From art to animals, archaeology to performance, science and beyond, there's lots to explore on campus and online (and nearly everything is free!) This article will reveal the world-class museums, galleries and theatres waiting to be explored in London.

Top three things you need to know about UCL careers

UCL Careers is the university's dedicated careers service. Even as a new student, you can access resources, opportunities and guidance now, to kick start life after your studies. Find out more.

New Population Health Sciences lecture series

Our experts are tackling the critical health issues of our time. To showcase this vital work, we've launched an exciting new lecture series featuring world-leading researchers from across the Faculty to examine and interrogate a range of urgent health challenges. Over the coming month, we'll be bringing you a series virtual events focusing on a range of topics from COVID-19, to the gender health gap, to vaccines and immunisation. Join the conversation.

Online Induction Connected Learning

Your online induction - Connected learning

While social distancing continues there will be limited opportunities to offer face-to-face teaching and learning in its most familiar forms. The Connected Learning at UCL course, explores our approach to ensuring your online learning is active, collaborative, and enjoyable, and offers a practical opportunity for both new and returning students to experience an online course before the new term begins. Get started!

Welcome Guide September 2020

Download the Welcome to UCL app - Guide for New Students September 2020

The Welcome to UCL app's 'Guide for New Students September 2020' includes a range of handy features, like the full list of induction and welcome events we're adding over the coming weeks, so you'll have a comprehensive orientation schedule in the palm of your hand. Download on the App Store or Google Play today and be sure to enable notifications for regular updates!
