Help shape the global conversation

CORONAVIRUS FAQs - We're committed to making sure you can receive a world-class education and student experience in September, and that you can do so safely and with the flexibility you need. Check our coronavirus FAQs regularly for all the latest on how we're doing this.

Dear `${Contacts.First Name}`,

This week, in the third of our Countdown to UCL emails, we continue counting down to the beginning of your UCL journey with information about a subject that is close to UCL's heart, and something we hope you're able to incorporate into your daily lives – Sustainability!

Sustainability

Here at UCL, we aim to incorporate sustainability into everything we do, whether that's our ways of working, our policies or our buildings themselves. From our education and research, to our campus and community, the Sustainable UCL team are committed to defining what's next and creating new possibilities, and they're inviting you to play your part.

Visit the Sustainability section of the Countdown to UCL blog.

Welcome from Sustainable UCL

Our friends over at the Sustainable UCL team are taking over the Countdown to UCL blog this week. They'll be telling you about how sustainability at UCL works, ways to get involved and how to implement sustainable practices into your daily life.

Sustainability hacks - how to get ready to be a digitally sustainable student

One of our student sustainability blog contributors, Helen, gives you her top tips on how to be a digitally sustainable student. Whether you're studying remotely or on campus, her tips will help you make the digital aspects of your life more sustainable.

Sustainability at the Union

Carol Paige - Democracy, Operations and Community Officer at Students' Union UCL - discusses the ways in which you can make the Union one of the most sustainable in the country.

Top sustainability apps

We all use apps to help us with our day-to-day lives. But did you know there are some great apps that help you to become a more sustainable person? Roshan, student sustainability blog contributor, reveals all.

Explore the Checklists

Our simple checklists will help you make sure you get everything done. These cover essential, recommended and extra activities for before and after the start of term.
