2	You would like to change to a lower level programme. E.g. MEng to BEng or MSci to BSc.	You will not be permitted to change programmes without first obtaining a new Tier 4 or Student visa. You will need to apply for this new visa outside the UK.	You will need to contact your department in the first instance to make this programme change request, your Department will then liaise with your Faculty and the Student Records Team to approve this change. Ensure that you have all the necessary documents and funds to meet the Tier 4 or Student visa application requirements and send the Visa Compliance Team (VCT) your completed CAS Request Form. UCL's CAS issuing policy can be found here.	Once the VCT receives your CAS Request Form and a copy of your boarding pass which confirms you have left the UK, you will receive a new CAS.	Once you have received your new visa, please inform the VCT, and your programme change will be concluded. For assistance with the submission of your Tier 4 or Student visa application, please contact the Student Immigration Advice Team. Please also note, this programme change request will not be processed through C2RS system on Portico.
3	You are expected to complete, or have completed the third year of your MEng or MSci programme and would like to graduate with the BEng or BSc.	Your visa duration will be longer than your programme duration.	You will need to contact your department to advise them that you would like to leave the programme early and graduate with the Bachelor degree. Please note that early course completions require department and faculty approval. The VCT and Student Records also need to be notified.	Once you have reached your new programme end date, UCL will withdraw sponsorship of your visa. UKVI will curtail your visa to your new programme end date, plus 4 months.	Please note that your department may have a deadline in place for graduating early. Please speak to your department for further information. Please also note, this programme change request will not be processed through C2RS system on Portico.
