

Sustainability Ambassador Role

Description

Do you want to help UCL and London achieve their commitments to the Paris Climate Agreement?

Become a Sustainability Ambassador to transform our halls and encourage UCL's 3000 residents to lead sustainable lifestyles.

Reduce the Juice are looking for a committee of environmentally and socially engaged students we can consult and work with, to help shape the future of UCL's halls and drive forward the positive changes students want. Knowledge and experience of sustainability is not essential as training is provided, so all you need is a desire to make the world a better place.

Responsibilities

- Attend the Sustainability Ambassador Summit on Tuesday 9th October
- Develop and lead a sustainability project in halls with the committee
- Give us your thoughts and advice on the events we have planned for the year
- Help us promote and run sustainability-focused events throughout the year

Benefits for you

- Regular social events
- Make friends and meet likeminded people
- A Free Hoodie
- The chance to help your hall win £2,250 in prize money, and decide how to spend it
- Recognition of achievement on your Higher Education Achievement Report (HEAR)
- Develop skills in:
 - o Project management
 - o Communication
 - o Event management
 - o Behaviour change
 - o Time management
 - o Sustainability
 - o Leadership
 - o Team work

Previous Sustainability Ambassadors have used these skills to win scholarships, internships and get jobs in the sustainability sector.

Commitment

- Attend the Sustainability Ambassador Summit on Tuesday 9th October
- Commit 20 hours over the year

Apply

To become a Sustainability Ambassador register to attend the Sustainability Ambassador Summit on Tuesday 9th October, 6 – 8pm.

Register here!