

You've been accepted at University College London

LAYING THE GROUNDWORK

I accept my offer and start to plan

GETTING SORTED

ON CAMPUS STUDENTS
I prepare to travel to London

Students receive clear and consistent messaging from all parts of the University

I complete essential admin

I set up UCL system and apps

I set up my new student life

Students are communicated with regularly and encounter minimal last minute changes to modules, programmes or timetables

I get a sense of student life

GETTING INVOLVED

INTERNATIONAL STUDENTS
I arrange my visa

Students connect with a cohort and fellow students ahead of classes

I prepare for my commencement at UCL

I prepare for my course

I complete enrolment admin

ON CAMPUS STUDENTS
I set up my accommodation

ON CAMPUS STUDENTS
I plan my life in London

READY TO START

Students have comprehensive knowledge of all the support services and resources that UCL offers

Students receive tailored support from academic staff and their Personal Tutor, giving them confidence they are on the right track

Students feel part of a UCL community and have access to a variety of socialising opportunities to meet their needs

REMOTE STUDENTS
I connect with other students and sign up to online clubs and societies

REMOTE STUDENTS
I attend online welcome events, including virtual site visits

I get to know UCL

ON CAMPUS STUDENTS
I attend a UCL campus tour and online welcome events

Feedback on assessments is timely and delivered in a constructive and sufficiently detailed manner to enable students to learn and improve

I complete in term assessment

I engage academically outside my coursework

I start to access available support services

CORE TERM

I learn how to be a student

I engage with student reps

I connect with other students and sign up to online clubs and societies

I attend online welcome events, including virtual site visits

I get support if I need it

I complete ongoing coursework

I get set up for term

I engage with student life

I engage with UCL academic staff

ON CAMPUS STUDENTS
I meet other students on campus and connect with those studying remotely

COMMENCEMENT

REMOTE STUDENTS
I use the remote library services and create my own study spaces

ON CAMPUS STUDENTS
I use the library and study spaces

REMOTE STUDENTS
I use remote-student facilities

ON CAMPUS STUDENTS
I use other campus facilities

I am kept informed by UCL

I plan for my career

I sit in-term exams

END OF YEAR

I plan for the next academic year

I sit end of year exams

COMPLETION

I plan for a life after UCL

I find out my results

My student life extends beyond UCL

I make the most of extra opportunities at UCL

Communications are consistent and students know exactly where to go to access information

Students have timely access to exam support and a suitable space to complete their exams that does not inhibit concentration

