

Routes Analysis

Routes Analysis forms part of the survey and evaluation applications developed for SSSP. The designer places points on the plan and analysis the shortest walking routes between either ALL-2-ALL locations or ALL-2-ONE location. Additionally, generic modes such as the below grid and perimeter mode can be used to identify generic main routes throughout a site towards a location in ALL-2-ONE mode.

grid mode

perimeter mode